The Defense Authorization Act of November 18, 1997, extended veterans' preference to persons who served on active duty during the Gulf War from August 2, 1990, through January 2, 1992. The law grants preference to persons otherwise eligible and who served on active duty during this period, regardless of where the person served or for how long. The law also authorizes the Secretary of each military department to award the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal for service in Bosnia during the veterans' preference. More information on veterans' preference is available in the Vet Guide that may be found on the United States Office of Personnel Management web site: www.opm.gov

On January 6, 2006, the President signed into Public Law 109-163, the Defense Authorization Act for FY

2006. This law has expanded the definition of veterans' preference, which now includes those individuals who served on active duty for a period of more than 180 consecutive days, any part of which occurred during the period beginning September 11, 2001, and ending as of the close of Operation Iraqi Freedom. If you believe you meet this requirement, you must ensure that your resume and supplemental data reflect your active duty service dates accordingly and submit a DD-214.
